

Primary Purpose

Jude Theatre Company CIC are an Applied Theatre Company working all over the North West and West Midlands to deliver Performing Arts issue-based projects/workshops in schools, colleges, prisons and community venues. We work with participants of all age groups, abilities and backgrounds. Previous topics we have covered include teenage pregnancy, health education, substance misuse, crime and offending behaviour and unemployment. We also facilitate youth and adult drama groups for main stream participants and those with learning difficulties to develop confidence, theatre skills, communication and team working skills.

Mission Statement

We aim to support people's right to creatively explore themselves and their roles within society by providing access to necessary theatrical tools. In addition, we are committed to working for the benefit of those who are marginalised by current provisions. By this we mean anyone or group who is directly or indirectly excluded from meaningful participation in society for reasons such as economic hardship or disempowerment.

judetheatrecompany CIC bringing together performance & psychology

Presents

'Louise'

Wednesday 13th of November

Written & Directed by Ian Mackay Artistic Director

Performed by Jude's Professional Actors
Elizabeth Morris
Stuart Mac
Alexandra Lyon

For more information please call 07974 363256
info@judetheatrecompany.co.uk
www.judetheatrecompany.co.uk

Services

jude's Youth and Adult Drama Groups

Become part of an established drama group or start one of your own with our help and begin developing transferrable skills, confidence, lasting friendships, but above all having fun.

jude's Research

With our background in Theatre and Psychology, Jude is on board with the Theatre & Performing Research Association's (TaPRA) aim of 'promoting the use of scientific procedures for the development of quality and ethically minded evidence for the use of Applied Theatre Interventions'.

jude's Projects / Workshops

Offers an alternative way to support participants of any age group, background or ability to explore and gain information about a range of issues in a variety of environments.

jude's Professional Actors

Looking for a thought provoking, accessible and entertaining way of introducing a topic, presenting educational information or tackling an issue? Then consider a performance from our troop of Professional Actors.

The performance - 'Louise'

This performance will be in the style of 'Forum Theatre', which means that its main aim is to create a discussion around the issues presented. Therefore the performance you will see is not meant to be comfortable to witness, it is designed to make you, the audience, want to change the outcome of the play. The performance will aim to raise more questions than it gives answers, leaving itself wide open to criticism and debate. After the play is finished there will be a chance for everyone to discuss what they saw, try out possible solutions and even get up and intervene directly in the play.

Warning: the performance is not meant to cause personal upset, however should you feel the need to leave then please do so, but try to return for the conclusion as this is where we shall endeavour to change things.

Written and Directed By Ian Mackay (Artistic Director)

With special Thanks to:

Stoke-on-Trent College & Staffordshire and West Midlands Probation Trust