With thanks to

judetheatrecompany cic
bringing together performance & psychology

Set up in 2008 by Artistic Director Ian Mackay, Jude Theatre Company's recent registration as a Community Interest Company (CIC) reflects the organisation's dedication to benefiting the community and inspiring others. Examples of this can be seen in the newly reformed Jude's Young Drama Group and recently created Jude's Contemporary actors

Thanks to funding from Newcastle Borough Council through their CULTURAL grants Jude's Young Drama Group's Reminiscence project has not only involved our members but also many local elderly residents with the hope of building respect and understanding.

Similarly, Jude's Contemporary Actors is a proactive group who wish to explore issue and make a difference in their local area and not purely perform for their own or others entertainment.

The Groups

Are a mixed ability group who bring a fun devised piece centred on the Ocean's fishy criminal underworld

Present a performance devised from their own and local resident's experiences of school holiday activities spanning the last 80 years

Based in Elsmere port, Stage Fright have come all this way to perform an extract from their up and coming play 'Our Street'

jude's Contemporary Actors

Our applied theatre group aim to engage you a provocative Forum Theatre performance about the down fall of a young girls dreams of a better life.
